THE
BUSHEY YEARS

A VIDEO OF
THE ROYAL MASONIC SCHOOL
FOR BOYS (1903-1977)

A SOUVENIR VIDEO has been produced using film and photographs taken during the years the school was at Bushey. This includes a section on the Junior School; reminiscences and up-to-date comments from seven long serving members of staff (including two headmasters); Cadet parades throughout the years; Duke of Edinburgh Award Scheme activities; and school drama including excerpts from five of Mr Renoir's feature films made with the boys.

Also featured is the Junior School Coronation Pageant.

To show the changes that have taken place since the school closed a section of up-to-date shots of what is now 'The International University' is included. This video shows The Royal Masonic School at work, rest and play and is over 120 minutes long. It includes commentary, carefully selected music and is designed to be of particular interest to all Old Boys, ex-members of staff, and anyone who has been associated with the school throughout the years.

Copies of the video are available on DVD from Peter R.H. Ibbett, the producer, by sending a cheque for £12.50 (+ £1.20 p&p in the U.K.) to:

A COLLECTION OF EXCERPTS FROM FILM AND TV MADE AT THE FORMER ROYAL MASONIC SCHOOL BUSHEY

For many years, Peter Ibbett the OMA Archivist has been collecting all sorts of professional film and TV made in the school. As the school is now almost all converted into living accommodation, it is unlikely any more filming will take place, so now is the time to make available this wonderful collection of excerpts from his collection of more than seventy of the titles. They range from comedy shows to drama and detective series, to big budget feature films; they are all included in this programme.

The task was to only include shots in the school and grounds and, in most cases, Old Boys and Staff will be able to enjoy working out exactly which part of the old School they are in. While some parts are quite short, showing many famous actors on the site, other sections are longer and stand up on their own; this makes the whole DVD very watchable. In order to include as much material as possible, with the aid of a vote among Old Boys on Facebook, it has been decided to make it a double DVD set, and will be supplied in a presentation box with picture sleeve showing David Rogalski, the main man behind the filming in recent years in the school. Photo by Gordon Metcalfe.

Copies of the video are available on a double DVD at £20 plus £1.60 p&p in the UK from PEGASUS VIDEO 23 Broadmead Green, Thorpe End Norwich Norfolk NR13 5DE.
